

----- Sentences with the verb "to have got" -----

Solutions

* Write in English these sentences in three different forms:

Yo tengo tres gatos.

- I have got three cats.
- I haven't got three cats.
- Have I got three cats?

La casa tiene una puerta verde.

- The house has got a green door.
- The house hasn't got a green door.
- Has the house got a green door?

Nosotros tenemos tres primos.

- We have got three cousins.
- We haven't got three cousins.
- Have we got three cousins?

Nosotros tenemos un espantapájaros en el jardín

- We have got a scarecrow in the garden.
- We haven't got a scarecrow in the garden.
- Have we got a scarecrow in the garden?

Miguel tiene cincuenta estampas.

- Miguel has got fifty stamps.
- Miguel hasn't got fifty stamps.
- Has Miguel got fifty stamps?

Esta comida tiene calabaza.

- This food has got pumkin.
- This food hasn't got pumkin.
- Has this food got pumkin?

La tienda tiene disfraces.

- The shop has got costumes.
- The shop hasn't got costumes.
- Has the shop costumes?

El museo tiene cuatro momias.

- The museum has got four mummies.
- The museum hasn't got four mummies.
- Has the museum got four mummies?

La bruja tiene una escoba.

- The witch has got a broom.
- The witch hasn't got a broom.
- Has the witch got a broom?

Mis padres tienen un coche nuevo.

- My parents have got a new car.
- My parents haven't got a new car.
- Have my parents a new car?

Louis y Katie tienen dos premios.

- Louis and Katie have two awards.
- Louis and Katie haven't two awards.
- Have Louis and Katie got two awards?

Miriam tiene una mascota.

- Miriam has got a pet.
- Miriam hasn't got a pet.
- Has Miriam got a Pet?

La mesa tiene cuatro patas.

- The table has got four legs.
- The table hasn't got four legs.
- Has the table got four legs?