

Communication: Pairwork unit 5

Student A

1 Imagine you are waiting to audition for a talent show live on TV. Student B is a TV presenter and wants to interview you for the programme. Read the questions and plan your answers. Use the present perfect form with still, yet or already. Add additional information for each question to make the interview more interesting.

- 1 Have you auditioned yet?

- 2 Have you waited a long time?

- 3 Have some people already gone home?

- 4 Have a lot of people cried?

- 5 Have you learnt your song yet?

- 6 Have you seen the judges yet?

2 Answer Student B's questions. Answer with complete sentences.

Example:

Student B Have you auditioned yet?

You No, I haven't auditioned yet. I'm quite nervous actually but I'm determined to be in a band.

3 Now imagine you are a journalist for a magazine. You are interviewing a young pop star (Student B) about his / her career. Ask questions in the present perfect form.

- 1 sign / contract / yet / ?

- 2 do / a lot of interviews / ?

- 3 how many / single / release / ?

- 4 shoot / video for / new single / yet / ?

- 5 ever get / bad review / ?

- 6 sack / anyone / yet / ?

Student B

1 Imagine you are a pop star. Student A is a journalist and wants to interview you for a magazine. Read the questions and plan your answers. Use the present perfect form with still, yet or already. Add additional information for each question to make the interview more interesting.

- 1 Have you signed a contract yet?

- 2 Have you done a lot of interviews?

- 3 How many singles have you released?

- 4 Have you shot a video for your new single yet?

- 5 Have you ever got a bad review?

- 6 Have you sacked anyone yet?

2 Now imagine you are a presenter for a talent show live on TV. You are interviewing Student A for the programme. Student A is a participant and is waiting to audition. Ask questions in the present perfect form.

- 1 have / audition / yet / ?

- 2 wait / a long time / ?

- 3 some people / already / go / home / ?

- 4 a lot of people / cry / ?

- 5 learn / your song / yet / ?

- 6 see / the judges / yet / ?

3 Answer Student A's questions. Answer with complete sentences.

Example:

Student A Have you signed a contract yet?

You Yes, I've already signed a contract. Now I'm working on a new single. I'm very excited.